HISPAMERFLEX

New edition of the Hispamerflex Congress

During the 30 September and 1 October, the 17th edition of the Congress HISPAMERFLEX 2010 will be held. The national event is a reference for the flexographic industry. This year will be held in the city of Girona and will be organized by COMEXI GROUP, DUPONT, Sun Chemical and ESKO GRAPHICS.

The Congress will feature the most innovative presentations and products best suited to improve the value added in flexible packaging. It will be demonstrated print qualities that were previously impossible in standard flexographic printing and new concepts to minimize waste generated during job changes.

The theme of the conference is "Growing Flexo: New Opportunities" aims to reflect the fact that flexographic printing is growing worldwide. The latest data show market share growth exceeding the rotogravure and offset printing. This is a consequence of the technological developments flexographic printing has made in the last decade, adapting to new market requirements both in quality and performance.

The orientation of the event will be very practical: technical sessions and product showcases will be combined in the Comexi Group facilities, in Riudellots de la Selva.

The registration process for this event will be open soon.
